THE COLORADO CHAPTER OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZERS (NAPO COLORADO) WILL BE FEATURED ON CHANNEL 9's COLORADO AND COMPANY PROGRAM.

DENVER, CO - April 15, 2006 - The National Association of Professional Organizers, Colorado Chapter, announces it will be featured on Channel 9's morning talk show, Colorado and Company, on Tuesday, May 2nd at 10am. This segment will teach consumers the step-by-step process to organizing any room...

This will be NAPO Colorado's 3rd guest appearance on Colorado and Company.

Professional Organizers belonging to the NAPO Colorado organization serve both residential and commercial clients. They offer services ranging from home and business organizing to information and time management to coaching and training. Some organizers specialize in work with attention-deficit-disorder and chronically disorganized clients. To the client, the benefits of working with a professional organizer include increased productivity, improved quality of life, reduced stress, streamlined processes, and time savings.

NAPO- Colorado is a local chapter of the National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO). NAPO is the premier national association dedicated to the field of organizing. With more than 2,500 members, NAPO's purpose is to share information about this growing industry and to define quality standards for the organizing profession.
